TWO CHARGED WITH MURDER

TWO men have been charged with the alleged murder of a man from Leyton.

Nana Oppong, 33, of no fixed abode and Adam Penny, 23, from Whitechapel, have been charged with the murder of Ashley Latty, 25.

They were due to appear at The Old Bailey on Thursday.

A third man, aged 29, has been bailed pending further enquiries to a date in early July.

Mr Latty died on Sunday following an alleged incident at The Beaver Centre, Selinas Lane, Dagenham.

A post mortem examination confirmed the cause of death as multiple stab wounds.

Half of people with dementia go untreated

MORE than half of dementia sufferers in Barking and Dagenham received no treatment last year because their condition was undiagnosed.

Barking and Dagenham Council has launched a campaign to help more people receive help.

The Dementia Friends Campaign also appealed for residents to become a Dementia Friend to those in need of help.

Matthew Cole, director of public health, said the scale of the problem had been revealed by a recent survey.

He said: "We are delighted to support this very important council campaign. In 2013, an estimated 1,537 people in Barking and Dagenham had dementia.

"Of these, 669 were diagnosed with dementia and recorded on GP registers meaning that an estimated 868 people with dementia in the borough were undiagnosed.

"We urge residents to visit their GP if they notice any early symptoms for help and support."

Extra services are to be made available to help support relatives and carers. In addition, the Alzheimer's Society offers a dementia advisor who is based at the Memory Clinic in Broad Street, Dagenham.

Mr Cole added: "Unfortunately there is still a lack of knowledge about dementia and we hope this campaign helps to raise awareness of the condition. People with dementia sometimes need a helping hand to go about their daily lives and so we urge residents to become a Dementia Friend so that they can help other people living with the condition, as well as provide a greater understanding of dementia in the community."

For further information on the campaign and how to become a Dementia Friend, visit www.dementiafriends.org.uk.

Residents who need information about dementia or need to access support can also contact the council on 020 8227 2915.

Next Step Fostering seek more foster carers...

Advertising feature

Next Step Fostering, the leading independent fostering agency, wants to hear from you if you are interested in finding out more about fostering and how you can change a child's life.

A family-owned business, Next Step Fostering has provided fostering services for over 25 years across Kent and most areas of London. Romford is now their sixth office.

Many people considering a career as a foster carer think that the local council is their only option. Most are completely unaware that independent fostering organisations even exist.

Next Step Fostering was established 25 years ago by Maureen and Alb Ward - who were foster carers themselves - and therefore had personal experience of caring for vulnerable children.

Next Step Fostering remains a family company as Maureen and Alb's daughter Lesley is the Director and she plays an active role in day to day decisions about the company and enjoys visiting foster carers to hear first hand how they are.

Next Step Fostering has gained an outstanding reputation for providing high quality child care. In the last three consecutive OFSTED inspections, Next Step achieved an 'Outstanding' rating across every standard in which they were assessed - probably the only IFA to achieve this.

A national shortage of foster carers means that children who cannot live with their family are being moved away from their home communities, resulting in a change of school, community, friends and religious contacts. Every day, Next Step receives child referrals from Local Authorities across the South East of England, but due to the high levels of demand, do not have sufficient families to meet the needs of the many children being referred.

As a family run company, Next Step Fostering is able to offer a personal, individual service to its foster carers and children. Supervision, support and training can be tailored to individual needs and foster carers have an open invitation to approach Lesley Ward directly to discuss any issues they may have.

Fostering a child is not an easy task, but it is possibly one of the most rewarding - and thanks to the generous allowance Next Step Fostering pays, many people give up unfulfilling jobs to undertake a career in fostering, where they feel they can really make a difference to young lives.

Clare Aston, Manager of the East London and Thames Valley offices, said "People often worry that they won't be suitable, based on things they have heard from friends or the media, but I would encourage anyone thinking about fostering to speak to us directly. We can answer all of their questions about the type of people we are looking for and what fostering is like."

If you are considering a career in fostering or simply want to learn more, call 01708 209227 for a chat or to arrange an informal meeting at our local office at 1 Brentwood Road, Romford, Essex RM1 2HA. Alternatively, visit the Next Step Fostering website at www.nextstepfostering.org.

Building society serves up tea and treats

FROM tea party to TOWIE, a charity has benefited from kind-hearted cake lovers.

Haven House children's hospice, based in Woodford Green, received donations from two events involving tea and treats.

Staff at Halifax Building Society, in High Road, Ilford, raised £250 by having a tea party within the branch while three youngsters from National Citizen Service sold cakes along High Road, Epping.

Tracey Ridout, Halifax branch manager said: "The staff enjoyed a really lovely spread and knowing that we were helping the work of our local children's hospice, made it taste even sweeter."

Launched back in March, by The Only Way Is Essex sisters, Sam and Billie Faiers, the hospice is urging local shops, business and community groups to hold their own afternoon teas and cake sales

At the heart of the community

By Matthew Stanton

waltham@yellowad.co.uk

A SOCIAL enterprise is putting the tea within community.

The Hornbeam Cafe and Environmental Centre, in Hoe Street, Walthamstow, has been run mostly by volunteers for more than 20 years, providing advice and activities for residents.

The building is an environment hub with produce grown in the borough being used to make breads, jams and preserves while soil in its gardens comes from farms in East Anglia registered with the Soil Association. The facility also promotes a trading scheme where people exchange unwanted items, is a collection point for the Eat or Heat food bank in Walthamstow and works in partnership with OrganicLea, in Chingford, which is London's largest greenhouse project.

Jenny Parker, who runs Norman Loves catering company in the cafe, took over the running of the kitchen in May.

She said: "The building had previously suffered severe fire damage and it was given to an environmental group to promote green living more than 20 years ago. The cafe and environment centre is a huge part of the community. The food we use here is grown across the borough for the people of the borough. We are here to promote a greener, sustainable way of living."

Events running this month in the cafe include:

■ An organic fruit and vegetable information stall run by OrganicLea, in Chingford, on Saturday, May 24, from 10am to 3pm.

■ Knitting, sewing and crafts groups run every Thursday from 2pm to 5pm.

■ An arts and crafts workshop on Tuesday, May 27, from 11am to 1pm.

■ The Bakers Arms Book Group are to hold discussions from 7.30pm on Friday, May 30.

■ Artwork by Gemma Seddon is being displayed

GREEN: Sue Wheat, who ran the Green Open Homes weekend alongside Sofia Sullivan, who volunteers at the cafe as part of the E17 Art Trail on Saturday, May 31, from 10am to 2pm.

■ A science fiction and astronomy group is to discuss a range of subjects at the cafe on Saturday, May 31, from 3.30pm to 5pm.

■ The Fork to Fork supper club, where residents can enjoy a three course meal from resident's recipes for £15, is to run on Saturday, May 31, from 6.30pm to 10.30pm.

At the weekend the cafe hosted Waltham Forest's first green open homes weekend.

The free exhibition gave people advice on energy and water efficiency, solar panels, building with reclaimed materials, energy efficient lighting, insulation, draught proofing and windows.

More than 300 people visited 14 homes in Leytonstone and Walthamstow over two days to see how they were benefiting from environmental features.

Sue Wheat, event co-ordinator, organised the government funded event. She said: "The aim of the event is to share information among local people about cheaper to run and more energy efficient."

Memorial set for completion

A MEMORIAL to the Parachute Regimental Association will be completed this summer in Romford.

Romford's Coronation Memorial Gardens will host the tribute to coincide with the 30th anniversary of the regiment's Ilford 84 Branch.

The section was founded by veterans of the Second World War and more recent conflicts such as Korea, Northern Ireland, the Falklands, Iraq and Afghanistan.

The association confirmed the works will be completed after receiving a £2,000 grant from the Veolia North Thames Trust.

Association fundraiser, Irene Brennan, said: "Our members are delighted to have been awarded this funding.

"We are very grateful to Veolia North Thames Trust for enabling us to erect a local memorial.

"This is very important to us as many of our members are unable to travel to Stafford to visit the memorial at the National Arboretum.

"We are intending to hold an event to celebrate our 30th anniversary and having the memorial completed by then would mean a great deal to us."

The Ilford section of the Parachute Regimental Association was created to promote comradeship between former members of the airborne forces and widows of members. As well as arranging social events and outings it provides assistance and aid.

Doug Benjafeld, chair of Veolia North Thames Trust, said the grant was going to a worthy organisation.

He said: "The trustees and I felt that it was vital for the Ilford 84 veterans to have a memorial in the local community as a focal point.

"We are pleased to be able to assist them in what will be an important year."

College gets good ofsted report

HAVERING Sixth Form College has been rated as 'good' by Ofsted.

Inspectors praised students at the college, in Wingley Lane, Hornchurch, for 'a very positive attitude to learning'.

Principal Paul Wakeling, said he was 'delighted' with the outcome.

He said: "This recognises the hard work of our staff to continue to meet the needs of students in this area providing an effective, enjoyable and aspirational experience for all of our students."

Inspectors rated students as producing high standard work and rated teaching, learning and assessment as good. Inspectors also said that the partnership in the borough between schools and colleges was exemplary and provides a 'complementary, comprehensive and impartial offer to learners'.

Crusaders on a mission

MASKED vigilantes are driving around streets in Chingford to 'warn' motorists about the operations of council camera cars.

No To Mob – a group of motorcyclists made famous by the BBC programme Parking Mad – was set up with the aim of trying to abolish Waltham Forest Council's camera cars, claiming they have targets for fines.

The group, which has over 1,000 volunteers in the UK, follow enforcement vehicles before warning motorists that they could be fined for offences that include parking on yellow lines, driving through no entry roads and turning right or left down restricted roads.

Steve Barker, who works as a legal consultant, said: "We try to make motorists abide by the rules of the road before they are punished financially. We can only advise and educate."

"Everyone makes a mistake, after all we are human, yet these cars hide, preying on these mistakes to make money."

"We help drivers avoid getting fines and falling victims to money making machines. We know some drivers have complete disregard for the rules and they should be fined by traffic wardens, not spy cameras."

The campaigner insists motorist, bus drivers and even police officers honk and cheer when they see the masked motorcyclists in operation.

Mr Barker also warned there are a number of 'hot spots' in Chingford, including:

Hundreds of people, including retired professionals and even an ex-diplomat, joined No To Mob after watching the BBC show.

A Waltham Forest Council spokesman said: "All of the camera cars that the council's contractor, NSL, use in the borough are clearly marked and have cameras that extend from their roofs. As such, they are deliberately conspicuous."

"Their remit does not include 'hiding', even if that were possible."

Questions to Waltham Forest Council:

Does Waltham Forest Council recognise the activities of No To Mob? Yes

Is Waltham Forest Council using these cars to raise revenue from motorists? No.
The camera cars are used to capture motorists committing offences. All revenue raised from such offences must by law be used strictly for improvements to transport within the borough.

How many surveillance cars

does Waltham Forest Council have in operation?

Four

What are the purpose of these vehicles? The camera cars are used to capture motorists committing offences. They focus primarily on moving traffic contraventions which are implemented for safety. They are also used in relation to illegal parking to tackle congestion.

Is Waltham Forest Council considering taking legal action against No To Mob?

No

Kids lead the way

MORE than 1,200 turned out in the weekend sunshine at the Kids Activity Expo.

The event – sponsored by the Liberty Shopping Centre – was held at Havering College, Green Road, Hornchurch, on Sunday.

Youngsters watched dance, drama and gymnastics performances, and then learnt routines, moves and exercises for themselves.

A event spokesman said the jewellery making workshops and science challenges were the most popular as kids made their own bracelets and necklaces.

He said: "We've thoroughly enjoyed today. The children have learnt so many new skills, most of which were all free. "We can't wait until the next Expo."

Rolls does some showboating

WAVE OF APPRECIATION: The Phantom Drophead Coupe Waterspeed is Rolls-Royce's tribute to Sir Malcolm Campbell's legendary speedboat Bluebird

by Mike Torpey

ROLLS-ROYCE is paying tribute to Sir Malcolm Campbell and his water speed record breaking speedboat Bluebird with its latest bespoke collection.

The luxury car-maker has chosen two fitting locations for the debuts of the car – the Phantom Drophead Coupe Waterspeed.

In Britain, the collection is being unveiled on the site of the original Bluebird Motor Company – now the Bluebird Restaurant – on London's King's Road. The building was commissioned in 1923 to be Europe's largest garage and was built in the era's Art Deco style, which it preserves today. The business ultimately helped fund Campbell's pursuit to wrest the water-speed record from its American holders.

The car will then head to the Concorso d'Eleganza at Villa D'Este on the shores of Italy's Lake Como, where it will be unveiled to the public for the first time.

It was on the adjacent Lake Maggiore where, on September 1, 1937, Campbell established his legend, setting a world-record speed of 126.33mph in the Bluebird K3, powered by a Rolls-Royce R engine.

Waterspeed Collection Phantom Drophead Coupes have bespoke design and engineering features to create a contemporary tribute to Campbell's famous craft. The car is finished in a specially developed Maggiore Blue exterior paint, inspired by Bluebird's colour scheme. Nine layers of paint are applied before a process of hand-sanding and powdered lacquer is undertaken to ensure a perfect finish. And, for the first time in Rolls-Royce history, the exterior finish extends to the engine.

The finish also adorns the car's eleven-spoke wheels and the exterior is topped off with a Bluebird motif that takes four hours to apply by hand. Further reference to Campbell's craft is made via a new interpretation of the famous 'power reserve' dial. As the driver presses on, the dial moves backwards towards a yellow and blue zone, echoing Campbell's original K3 boat's 'going into the blue' at maximum engine revs.

CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE FOR ALL ADVERTISEMENTS

Orders are accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Newspaper Society and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. Save that:

1. Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that (a) descriptions relating to goods are accurate and in no way contravene the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, and the Fair Trading Act 1973, and (b) the copy complies with the British Code of Advertising Practice. Advertisements offering credit or hire facilities must conform to the Consumer Credit (Advertisements) Regulations 1980.

2. 'Classified' Advertisers offering goods or service of a business, commercial or trade nature will, at the discretion of the Publishers, be deemed 'Trade Advertisers', and as such, must include their names in advertisements. A telephone number is an optional addition to these requirements and not an alternative. To comply with the Business Advertisements (Disclosure) Order 1977, Trade Advertisers must make it clear that they are selling goods in the course of business either by content, format, size or place of the advertisement or by including words such as 'trade', 'dealer', 'agent', 'wholesaler', '(T)' etc. in the advertisement.

3. The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage however caused arising out of:

(a) Any error, inaccuracy or omission in the printing or publishing of any advertisement;
(b) Any failure to publish an advertisement on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser; or
(c) Any delay in forwarding or omission to forward replies to box numbers to the advertiser.

4. The Publishers will endeavour to publish advertisements on the day / date or day / dates specified by the Advertiser but insertion days / dates cannot be guaranteed.

5. Where shrinkage of advertisement occurs for whatever reasons the advertisement will be charged to the nearest full centimetre. This will NOT apply to the full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even after shrinkage. 6. The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.

7. Whilst every effort is made to minimise errors in advertisements, mistakes do sometimes occur. Advertisers or their agents should therefore check their advertisements and inform us of any errors immediately. Responsibility cannot be accepted for more than one incorrect insertion. Typographical or minor changes, which do not affect the value of the advertisement, do not qualify for republication or allowances.

8. All gross advertising rates (except classified lineage and semi-display) are subject to and include a 0.1% Advertising Standards Board of Finance surcharge, payable by the advertisers to help finance the self-regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.

9. All rates quoted are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time the advertisement appears.

10. Should the rate for advertisements be altered the price for remaining insertions shall be revised accordingly or the publishers shall have the right to cancel the unexpired portion of the order.

11. The placing of an advertisement order will be deemed an acceptance of these conditions.

12. Account facilities are granted at the discretion of the Company.

13. All accounts must be settled within the terms agreed by the Company and the Customer.

(1) Should an advertiser be in breach of the agreed terms, the publisher shall be entitled to levy a 10% surcharge on the value of the whole debt in respect of accounts with terms of less than 30 days, and any discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed.

(2) Regular monthly accounts that are in breach of the agreed terms will pay an interest rate of 6% above the current bank of England base rate for each month that the account is overdue and discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed. Should Legal action be required the interest will be charged in accordance with the County Court Act 1984.

14. Where an advertiser instructs / appoints an advertising agent to act on their behalf, the advertiser will remain jointly and severally liable for payment in respect for an advertisement(s) should the appointed agent fail to pay. For the avoidance of doubt, the agent acts for the advertiser and not for the publisher with the agent being responsible for notifying the advertiser of this liability.

15. All queries must be notified, preferably in writing to the accounts department of the publisher within 7 days of the invoice date.

16. All digital services are maintained in partnership with the publishers' hosting service providers. Every effort is made to ensure the continuity of these services, but some occasional technical downtime beyond the publishers control may occur. The publisher and its associated companies shall be under no liability if the production and distribution of web services is delayed or prevented by any cause beyond the control of the publisher.

17. The Publisher may provide voucher copies for published advertisements in electronic form only subject to certain criteria. Further information is available on request.

18. The copyright of advertisements produced wholly or partially by the Publishers belong to the Publishers. Advertisers may not reproduce such advertisements without the Publishers' consent.

Box Numbers

Boxes are open for the receipt of bona fide answers and are not available for distribution of trade canvassing matter. Original testimonials, goods, cash, stamps or payments of any kind must not be enclosed. A box number and postal address are charged as part of the advertisement, i.e. Box No., centre address. There is no charge for forwarding replies.

Box numbers alone are not available for use in 'Trade' advertisements, other than Employment and Business Opportunities.

Holiday & Travel Category

All advertising must contain the name of the advertiser, phone number alone are not permitted.

Data Protection

The service you have requested may require us to carry out a credit search at a credit-referencing agency, which will record the fact that a search has been made. We may need to share your information with other lenders and credit reference agencies. However, we will only use the information from these searches to make credit-granting decisions and, if necessary, for fraud prevention or tracing debtors.

Data controller will use your information for administration and analysis. We may share your information with other Tindle Group Newspaper companies or carefully selected third parties. We, or they may send you details of other goods and services, which may be of interest to you. The information may be provided by letter, telephone or other reasonable means of communication. Calls may be recorded or monitored for training purposes.

Special conditions apply with regard to the advertising of adult services, which are outlined to all persons submitting such advertisements.

SO NEAR YET SO FAR FOR BLUES

Southend United

Southend United 2
Burton Albion 2
Sky Bet League Two play-off, second leg
(Burton win 3-2 on aggregate)
By Rowland Lyons and Brian
Jeeves at Roots Hall

SOUTHEND missed out on a trip to Wembley after suffering season-ending heartbreak after only managing to draw this tie on Saturday.

After a frenetic start, in front of a near full house and before the live TV cameras, it was the Brewers who opened the scoring when Anthony Holness doubled the aggregate lead on 21 minutes with a splendid header from Chris Hussey's wickedly inswinging free-kick.

But, it wasn't long until Ryan Leonard's exquisite 32nd minute finish put the Blues firmly back in the mix with an unstoppable overhead effort.

Southend – now with the upper hand – had Burton on the ropes and Anthony Straker levelled the contest on 39 minutes with a powerful header from Michael Timlin's lofted cross to at last give the noisy home crowd belief.

Leonard had options straight after the break, but instead of squaring for better placed colleagues, he decided to go it alone – and despite forcing Dean Lyness into the smartest of saves, the miss proved to be the turning point.

The Brewers reshuffled in midfield and with the introduction of Billy Kee, the Blues had to sustain heavy pressure and withstand several nervous moments, with Daniel Bentley outstanding, until Adam McGurk hit what proved to be winner with 20 minutes left.

Despite piling on the pressure, Southend failed to make that vital breakthrough and at least force extra-time, with sub, Jack Payne trying his luck and forcing Lyness into a important save, Leonard going close with a volley and Barry Corr inches away from toe-ending a chance home.

A disappointed Phil Brown said: "I am sad for the players. I have been saying all season that it is a hugely young group – with five 20 year olds out there today. They're learning to take in this sadness and what Burton felt this time last season. You can use this moments of sadness to your advantage. Hopefully, next season we can take hold of this division with a vengeance.

"We thought we had done the job at half-time and just needed to stay calm – but somehow we didn't manage it. In the second half, when Ryan Leonard hits the bye-line – he just needed to square it; maybe we just need to learn in those situations. If it goes to 3-1, then it's 'game over'.

"The players have given their all this season. We went through a period of not winning for twelve games. But, we managed to get in the play-offs, finish fifth, but we came up against a side that felt last year what we are experiencing now and they have used it to their advantage.

"We just needed that little bit of fortune in front of goal. But, it wasn't to be and it's Burton's day. I hope this squad can learn from this experience and my job will be to keep them together."

Blues' skipper, John White, admitted: "I think it's going to take a little while to sink in. There is so much frustration in the dressing room and it's tough to take. But, I think we have a strong enough group of lads, that we can take it on our shoulders and crack on for next season."

Brewers' boss, Gary Rowett added: "After last year it would have been disappointing to have gone out at the semi-final stage – but it's 'fun' time for us now having reached Wembley."

SOUTHEND UNITED: Daniel Bentley – John White (captain), Jacob Sokolik, John Egan, Ben Coker – Kevan Hurst, Ryan Leonard, Michael Timlin (Conor Clifford 65), Will Atkinson (Jack Payne 78), Anthony Straker (Freddie Eastwood 72) – Barry Corr. Subs (not used): Paul Smith (gk), Marc Laird, Luke Prosser, Lee Barnard, Jacob Murphy.

BURTON ALBION: Dean Lyness – Phil Edwards, Marcus Holness, Shane Cansdell-Sheffield, Chris Hussey – David Gray (Alex Macdonald 75), Robbie Weir, Lee Bell (captain), Callum McFadden – Adam McGurk, Dominic Knowles (Billy Kee 53). Subs (not used): Rob Lainton (gk), Gary Alexander, Zander Diamond, Matty Palmer, Michael Symes,

Football

Ensign are relegated

Non-league round up by Brian Jeeves
PREMIER Division White Ensign finally lost their Prokit Essex Olympian League relegation battle after defeats to Harold Wood and Hannakins Farm.

Manager Aaron Bloxham told Yellow Sport how he could find words to explain his disappointment, this after his charges went down 2-0 at Harold Wood in midweek. But Bloxham was far more upbeat after Saturday's 2-1 reverse to Hannakins Farm at the Len Forge Centre, claiming "We couldn't have done any more." Welcome Mtshali grabbed Ensign's goal but it wasn't enough to save the Southend based outfit from the drop.

Elsewhere in the top division Harold Wood followed up that midweek triumph with a stunning 5-2 win over Buckhurst Hill while goals from Michael Daniels, Lee Newton and a double from Stephen Willis saw Kelvedon Hatch beat May & Baker E.C. 4-1.

Frenford Senior beat Manford Way 3-0 and there was a notable win for Rayleigh Town who edged out Harold Hill by the odd goal in five.

Champions Southminster St Leonards were held 1-1 by Newbury Forest, Tom Hine netting for the Saints.

In Senior Division One Epping Town won a pulsating encounter at Forest Glade by five goals to three while Canning Town were held 1-1 by Galleywood.

In the Mid-Essex League Division Six, Southend based Leigh Ramblers clinched promotion after an effervescent double header with chi ef rivals Rayne.

In the first encounter Rams went a goal down when a long ball over the top was latched on to by Harry Dines. In the second half a change of formation saw Ramblers equalised. Max Holmes rising the highest to nod home at the far post. Then, in the final minutes, Ryan Kirby found the far corner to seal the game 2-1.

The second game saw Rayne forge ahead in the first half thanks to a header in by Daniel Balldock.

However, persistence paid off for Ramblers as Max Holmes bagged his second of the day deep into injury time to steel a point and confirm promotion.

Ramblers' manager Neil Foster told Yellow Sport: "It wasn't ideal playing a double header with so much at stake for both sides, but our lads have earned all the success they have gained this year."

And he added: "It's a young side, they work for each other and their never day die attitude has brought them the enjoyment of sealing one of the two promotion spots."

Redbacks youngsters upset defending champions

Baseball

Forest Glade Redbacks U13s 3-2 London Mets U13
Forest Glade Redbacks U13s 7-8 London Mets U13
ON a beautiful Saturday afternoon, the Redbacks' U13 team won for the first time this season against the defending champions, London Mets.

The tight 3-2 win, one of the tightest ever games in both clubs' histories, was followed by a narrow 8-7 defeat, proving that the Essex side had made fantastic progress already this year and are likely to challenge for the Little League title as the summer continues.

Redbacks U13 manager Sean Briscoe said: "We came close to beating the Mets last week before the weather intervened, but there was no chance of us stopping in such glorious weather this time around!

"The guys put in a great performance to win the first game and I think that we had chances to win the second one as well, which would really have made a statement to the whole league as to how far we've come, and how much we want to pick up a winners trophy this season."

Essex Redbacks II 21-24 Essex Archers

Redbacks' second team came close to picking up their first win of the year against the Essex Archers, in Waltham Abbey, on Sunday.

Without both of their regular pitchers, the job fell to Dan Straw to showcase his talents on his debut and his first pitching performance in over two seasons.

The Archers seized their chances as they were also chasing their first win of the season, and rushed out to a sizeable early lead, but were pegged back with nine runs in the fourth inning as Dave Jessop and the returning Adam Commons were both aggressive around the bases, backed by the bats of Darren Wainier and Jason Gore.

In the outfield, strong performances by Joe Dawe and George Baitman helped the Redbacks limit the Archers' response, but their early lead was enough to ultimately get them over the line, Dan Straw pitching all seven innings for the visitors.

Hammered!

Speedway

VORTEX Hammers Promoter Jon Cook says the team will learn from Monday's defeat against King's Lynn.

Cook commented after the match: "We weren't good enough as a team and it showed. We dropped points and not looking for partners cost us a win.

"Neil Vatcher and I are going to be making changes ahead of Saturday in the riding order and will look at changing the team itself if it doesn't work."
